Greg Warren
Comedian

To whom it may concern:

Laughter truly is the best medicine and Greg did a terrific job of making us laugh at our annual management conference. His humor was appropriate for a conservative, family owned company and his stories resonated with everyone, from our oldest attendee at 90 to our youngest manager.

Greg was easy to work with, flexible with his scheduling and needs, and our team absolutely loved him! We would definitely recommend him to other corporate clients.

Sincerely,

Alison Casler
Vice President, Chief Human Resources Officer
