Having been aware of Greg Warren's comedy for several years, and after seeing his live shows, I was excited to be able to book Greg for our Annual Conference of restaurant operators and vendors.

As anticipated, Greg was a hit with the audience. His style, presentation, and ability to connect with the audience is phenomenal. Some were crying from laughing so hard. Greg's ability to tailor a performance to the audience is unmatched.

Two weeks later, attendees of the conference are still commenting on what a great night it was and how Greg Warren was the perfect end to our week.
